CALL FOR PAPERS

Refugees as Entrepreneurs in Host Countries

Guest Editor Sujit Chowdhury

This issue of Refuge will explore a more optimistic side of being a refugee since that designation is not an end in itself. Real-life experiences will demonstrate how "timely" refugee status has enabled many individuals to develop their potential and become successful in business, politics, science, education, and art in host countries, and Canada, in particular. The role of government programs, local communities, and non-governmental organizations in facilitating this process will be stressed.

Topics addressed in the issue will include:

- the significance of obtaining "timely" refugee status;
- the role of comprehensive assistance programs and organizations that serve refugees in nurturing refugee entrepreneurial initiatives;
- the process that connect refugees with opportunities in host countries;
- success stories: refugees as entrepreneurs, politicians, academics, social activists, etc; and
- the influence of refugees on the sociopolitical, economic, and academic life in host countries.

Contributions with abstracts are invited. They must be received no later than January 31, 1999. Papers should be typed, double-spaced, and referenced in the approved Refuge format. They should not exceed 16 pages or about 4000 words. Short papers of about 900 words are also welcome. Word-processed submissions may be sent on disc or by e-mail.

On accepte aussi des articles en français. Le style doit conformer aux normes exigés pour les articles rédigés en anglais.

Deadline: January 31, 1999.
