

RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP AND AWARDS

Centre for Refugee Studies YORK UNIVERSITY

A. KATHLEEN PTOLEMY RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

An annual Can. $15,000 Kathleen Ptolemy Research Fellowship has been set up to permit a visiting scholar from a developing country to undertake research on refugees. Scholars interested in the study of refugee women who are in need of protection, and demonstrate commitment to refugee rights advocacy or service to the disfranchised will be given priority.

B. ANNUAL RESEARCH AWARDS

The goal of these research awards is to provide funding to a number of graduate students while they undertake research projects under the auspices of the Centre for Refugee Studies. Eligible students are/will be registered full time in a graduate program at York University and whose intended research area is refugee and migration studies. International students are eligible to apply.

VALUE OF AWARDS

i. Naomi Harder Refugee Award - Can. $15,000

The Naomi Harder Award may not be held in conjunction with an external scholarship or any other teaching or research assistantship.

ii. General Refugee Awards - 5 awards of Can. $9,000

The General Refugee Awards may be held in conjunction with an external scholarship, but may not be held in conjunction with any other teaching or research assistantship.

Candidates should submit a curriculum vitae (resumé), academic records, two letters of reference and a sample of research or publications to the Centre for Refugee Studies, together with a statement of intent by March 15, 1993.

VISITING SCHOLARS

Visiting scholars may use the facilities at the Centre for Refugee Studies for short-term or long-term projects. Short-term projects are those that can be completed within a few weeks or months. We will provide visiting scholars with office space and a computer. Long-term research projects are for the duration of the academic year, which extends from September to April and are also eligible for funding support.

CRS ANNUAL DINNER AND MEETING

FEBRUARY 4, 1993

Yes, it's that time of year again! The Centre for Refugee Studies (CRS) cordially invites you and your friends to join us at our Annual Chinese Dinner and Meeting. The dinner is being held on February 4, 1993 at the Jade Garden Restaurant, 222 Spadina Avenue, Toronto.

VINCENT KELLY AWARD

We are pleased to announce that we have invited the Honourable Kim Campbell, Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada, to present the Vincent Kelly Award.

This year's award will be presented to Barbara Jackman and Pierre Duquette, two lawyers who have performed outstanding work on behalf of refugees. The dinner will focus on the legal profession and its contribution in the area of refugee studies.

CRS ENDOWMENT FUND

Our Annual dinner is an opportunity for the Centre to bring together those interested and involved in refugee studies. This year the dinner will assist in funding two graduate legal students with their research through the CRS Endowment Fund.

We look forward to you joining us or your financial support through a donation, which will then enable people from the refugee community to attend our dinner on your behalf.

Please copy the registration form and send it to us at your earliest convenience. The CRS greatly appreciates your interest in and support of our endeavours.

Director, Centre for Refugee Studies

Applications and nominations are invited for the position of Director of the Centre for Refugee Studies for a term of no less than two years and no more than four years beginning July 1, 1993. Established as an official University-based research unit in 1988, the Centre was named as a CIDA Centre of Excellence in 1991. The Director of the Centre reports to the Associate Vice-President (Research).

Applicants are expected to have academic appointments at York University and to have a distinguished record of scholarship and strong research interests in refugee studies or related issues. They must possess the capacity to administer and develop the research programs of this interdisciplinary unit.

The Director is expected to administer the day-to-day activities of the Centre, to fulfil the CIDA Centre of Excellence mandate, to develop additional funding sources, and to maintain an active research program. The successful applicant will receive an appropriate course load reduction through the Centre of Excellence agreement and an administrative stipend.

Applications and nominations (including curriculum vitae and suggested references) should be sent by January 15, 1993, to:

Barbara Tryfos
Secretary of the Search Committee
Office of the Associate Vice-President (Research)
York University, S945 Ross Building
